RE: Town Hall Meeting

Just a reminder that the White Bluff Property Owners Town Hall Meeting will be this coming Saturday morning, beginning at 9:00 AM at the White Bluff Chapel.

The intent of the Board was to make available a phone-in service so those property owners not in attendance could listen to the meeting as it progressed. This will not be provided because of the cost associated with it. As an example, if 300 property owners were to phone in and the meeting lasted for 3 hours, the cost would exceed $7,000. In order to accommodate property owners not in attendance, the Board will send out via email a detailed summary of the meeting as soon as possible following the meeting. We will also record the meeting and post the recording on our website for access by property owners.

Please refer to the email dated February 13, 2018. This email can be found on the POA website, www.whitebluffpoa.com under the "News" link. In this email we outlined the format of the meeting.

Your Board is looking forward to the meeting as a constructive step toward not only bringing our property owners together in a constructive setting but also mutually addressing common issues of importance to our community.
