

Due to the much needed and nearly 3" of rain received last night and with more in the forecast for today, the Old Course will be closed to all golf operations today. Thank you for your understanding