

Due to the strong Cold Front arriving later today and going thru Wednesday, both golf Courses will be closed effective Immediately so that the grounds crew can get tarps over the greens before the high winds hit. We apologize for the inconvenience, but we must protect the new greens