RE: The Spirit of White Bluff Personified & a Correction

The positive response from our White Bluff community is phenomenal! While the resort's Christmas decorations remain locked up, our special people at White Bluff began rallying to make a difference.

Sherrie Williams and Cindy Ellis volunteered to spearhead an effort to plan out what needed to be done to decorate for the Christmas season. They detailed what is needed and came to the Board with the plan and proposed budget. The Board has approved the amount requested, and you will see our community begin to light up like never before the day after Thanksgiving.

Several of our White Bluff family responded to Brenda Rieger's offer and suggestion that donations be made to the POA to offset the cost of decorations. While the Board is most appreciative of the expressed generosity of so many, we think it would be better for everyone to use that money to make their homes and yards come alive during the most wonderful of seasons.

Thank you Sherrie, thank you Cindy, thank you Brenda and thank you to all for your support of not only your Board but more importantly for one another.

On another note the Board would like to correct a statement made in a previous email about Double Diamond's offer not being the same as a proposal made to the Board on November 3rd. The emailed version of the Double Diamond communication did not appear to include items 12, 13 and 14 and did not come in on some emails. We apologize about any confusion.
