RE: Litigation Alert

The Texas Supreme Court has denied Double Diamond's petition for writ of mandamus. The orders previously issued by the Hill County District Court compelling the production of documents and the contempt of court still stand.

A hearing in Hill County District Court has been set for Tuesday, January 2nd at 9:00 AM. The court will hear the numerous motions made by Double Diamond including their contention of fraudulent proxies in the May, 2017 Annual Meeting.

Your Board will continue to keep you apprised as things develop.
